Additional increments of 5,000	$50

 Points can only be redeemed for a statement credit up to the full amount of the airline ticket that has been charged to your HSBC MasterCard Account.*

2. Each purchase is treated as a separate transaction for purposes of redemption. For example, if you purchase 2 airline tickets at the same time and they appear as one transaction on your HSBC MasterCard Account, it will be treated as one purchase. However, if you purchase 2 airline tickets separately, and they appear as separate transactions on your HSBC MasterCard Account, they will be treated as 2 separate purchases for purposes of redemption.
