Business without Borders is global

Why is Business without Borders being demised?

Business without Borders has provided insights and expert voices on international business topics to the Canadian community for several years. In order to continue to provide our readers with relevant and informative content, we have expanded our program. With HSBC Global Connections, you can expect the same timely local content and tools, along with additional exclusive insights from our partners from all over the world.

What is different about HSBC Global Connections?

Provided by HSBC Bank PLC in partnership with leading international publications, HSBC Global Connections provides a truly global network for international businesses in Canada. It provides you content from strong, independent voices around the world, as well as insights from leading HSBC experts. Building on the insightful tools and content that you’ve come to expect, HSBC Global Connections will provide you with a full spectrum of global perspectives on international business topics.

Why should I become a member of HSBC Global Connections?

- Global forum on international business
- Provides local and global perspectives from subject matter experts
- Delivers targeted insights on country, industry and business topics
- Ability to access 10+ country sites in addition to Canada providing deep local content and insights
- Provides forward-looking tools and information to help spot global market opportunities and potential risk management issues; better manage international supply chains; and navigate international cultural, legal, regulatory and cultural nuances.
How do I become a member of HSBC Global Connections?

Membership is simple.

- On the HSBC Global Connections homepage click on the ‘register’ button in the top right of the page, OR go here.
- Answer a few simple questions about yourself
- Set up and confirm a new password
- Review and accept the site Terms and Conditions, including the Privacy Policy and Cookie Policy
- Click on ‘Sign Up’

Why do I have to re-enter my membership information into HSBC Global Connections?

HSBC Global Connections is a new website, hosted and maintained by HSBC Bank PLC. No membership data is shared or transferred between Business without Borders and HSBC Global Connections. As such, you will need to sign up to HSBC Global Connections and agree to the sites terms and conditions.

What happens to my member information?

Your membership and membership information with Business without Borders will be erased following the demise of the site.

How does this impact the LinkedIn Group?

Only the name of the LinkedIn Group will change. Your membership is not impacted.