

HSBC InvestDirect

Resolving your complaints

We're here to listen

At HSBC InvestDirect – a division of HSBC Securities (Canada) Inc. – we are sensitive to your needs and would like to hear any complaints you may have so we can serve you better. We are here to listen and help. To quickly address any issues you may have, we have designed a simple customer complaint process. The process begins with contacting HSBC InvestDirect. We believe many of your concerns can be successfully resolved by HSBC InvestDirect, where staff have both the training and authority to arrive at a solution. You can be assured that we will resolve your complaint as soon as possible.

Steps that HSBC InvestDirect will follow in handling your complaint

As a division of HSBC Securities (Canada) Inc., which is a member firm of the Investment Industry Regulatory Organization of Canada (IIROC), HSBC InvestDirect is required to ensure that client complaints are handled in an effective, fair and expeditious manner. Summarized below are the steps that will be taken in the review of your complaint:

1. Your complaint is received by HSBC InvestDirect.
2. The nature of the complaint is determined and someone is assigned to handle it:
 - complaints involving alleged misconduct will be handled by the Compliance Department
 - complaints relating to customer service issues will be handled by the HSBC InvestDirect Management Team
3. Receipt of your complaint is acknowledged within five (5) business days. This acknowledgement may include a request for you to provide additional information if reasonably required to investigate the complaint, and will include the contact information for the individual handling the complaint.
4. Account documentation (such as your application forms and monthly statements) relevant to the complaint is reviewed.
5. Any internal comments and supporting HSBC InvestDirect documentation related to the concerns raised in the complaint are also reviewed.
6. A balanced assessment of your concerns against the internal information collected is undertaken by the individual handling the complaint.
7. A substantive response letter is sent to you no later than ninety (90) days of receipt of your complaint. This letter will outline the results of the review, the firm's final decision(s), and any proposed remedial steps and escalation options available to you should you be dissatisfied with the outcome of the complaint handling process.

8. If, due to unforeseen or uncontrollable circumstances, a substantive response letter cannot be issued within ninety (90) days of receipt of your complaint, a letter will be sent to you within the ninety (90) day timeframe outlining the reason(s) for the delay and the new estimated time for completion of the firm's review.

Where to go if you have a complaint or concern about procedures, compliance standards or any other matter with the HSBC group of companies in Canada[†]

We are committed to setting the highest customer service standards in the financial services industry. We hope you will give us the opportunity to correct any situation you may encounter that does not meet expectations.

If you have any concerns about a procedure, privacy or compliance issue, or have encountered a problem with our service, we want to know about it. To help resolve your complaint quickly and efficiently, you should contact one of the following offices, in the order provided:

1. HSBC InvestDirect
2. Head of HSBC InvestDirect
3. Compliance Department/Designated Complaints Officer
4. Internal Independent Bodies: HSBC Commissioner of Complaints/HSBC Office of the Privacy Officer
5. Ombudsman for Banking Services and Investments
6. Other External Bodies: Investment Industry Regulatory Organization of Canada/Office of the Privacy Commissioner of Canada

1. Filing a complaint at HSBC InvestDirect

If you have a complaint or concern, the first place to make it known is at HSBC InvestDirect. Staff are trained to do everything they can to correct the situation and to respond to complaints promptly. They can also provide you with specific details on policies concerning permitted sales practices and other compliance issues including information about HSBC's privacy policies and a copy of HSBC's Privacy Code. If your concerns remain unresolved or if your concerns relate to any alleged misconduct, you should ask to speak with the HSBC InvestDirect Management Team who will undertake further investigation and action. You may also have your concerns directed to the HSBC InvestDirect Management Team by contacting them at the following:

Toll-free telephone: 1-800-760-1180

Email: investdirect@hsbc.ca

2. Office of the Head of HSBC InvestDirect

Sometimes, a situation cannot be resolved to your satisfaction. In such cases, you may also write to the Head of HSBC InvestDirect. If necessary, the Head of HSBC InvestDirect will initiate further investigation into your concerns and ensure that you receive a written response. You may contact the Head of HSBC InvestDirect at the following:

4. Internal Independent Bodies

If you are not completely satisfied with the resolution reached after pursuing other HSBC channels, you may escalate your complaint to the HSBC Commissioner of Complaints or, if your complaint relates to privacy, the HSBC Office of the Privacy Officer.

The HSBC Commissioner of Complaints

HSBC has established a Commissioner of Complaints to help with unresolved matters if you feel your complaint has not been adequately addressed.

Receipt of your request will be acknowledged by email, telephone or mail according to your preference. On completion of a detailed investigation, the HSBC Commissioner of Complaints will provide you with a written response containing details of its investigation, its decision and an explanation on how this decision was reached.

The HSBC Commissioner of Complaints will only address your concern once they have been fully investigated by the other HSBC channels. The HSBC Commissioner of Complaints can be reached at:
